Standing on the Farmhill Estate, once owned by Justice Henry Wyatt, Wyatt House is a traditional, yet unique care home offering a relaxed environment for people requiring specialist high level dementia nursing care.

With a large, bright, open dining room and traditional lavender tea room, you can enjoy a bite to eat in the company of others or take in the sight and smell of the fragrant flowers in our award winning enclosed gardens.

Wyatt House offers a safe and secure environment that not only promotes a sense of freedom through the building's unique circular design, but also makes life a little easier to navigate, promoting independence. It really is a special home for people living with dementia.
